

Photography Competition

One award will be given in each category of Arson and Accidental Fire Photography. Photos will be judged on content, technique and composition. In addition, photos will be published in the FL-IAAI Newsletter following the Annual General Meeting.

Rules for the Annual FL-IAAI Photo Competition:

1. The Photographic Award competition is open only to members in good standing of the FL-IAAI.
2. All photos entered must be the work of the person entering and must have been taken within the preceding 24 months.
3. There are two categories for competition: Category 1 – Arson Photos; Category 2 – Accidental Fire Photos (A maximum of two photographs may be submitted by any one entrant in each category.)
4. Photos may be in color or black and white.
5. If submitting digital photos they must be shot at 3 to 8 mega pixels and in JPG format. If shot by 35mm, photos can be scanned into digital format, or prints may be submitted in an 8 x 10 format. No identification or marks of any kind may be placed on the photograph. Photographs are not to be mounted. A designation of appropriate category and a brief explanation of the subject of the photograph, including type of structure or item, must accompany each photograph submitted and reference the digital number of the photograph (if applicable). Photos may not be electronically manipulated in any way. The awards committee reserves the right to make contact with the entrant to verify the photograph by means of further documentation.
6. The following information must be included for each photo submission: Name, Mailing Address, Telephone Number, Department or Company Name, Date photo was taken, Location of photo scene, Current e-mail address, Number sequence of each photo submitted by digital number as described in Rule 5 (if applicable).
7. All photo entries become the property of the FL-IAAI and will not be returned.
8. Any entry not complying with these rules will be eliminated.
9. All photos must be submitted either via email to eric.saccasyn@myfloridacfo.com or postmarked no later than September 30th of each year. Applications postmarked after that date will not be considered.

Nominations must be postmarked by September 30th of each year and mailed to:
